Weekly Newsline Editor, Job description:

On a weekly basis:
Compile industry data in a presentable form.
Communicate with industry members.
Write an article, narrative of US market conditions, trends, and pricing.
Write an article, commentary on industry issues.
Publish the Newsline on Tuesday morning and forward an electronic version to the CAS administrator for distribution. Print and distribute the paper copies sent via postal mail.

Also:
Attend general CAC board meetings as well as some CAC committee meetings.
Attend CAC field meetings.
Attend CAS board meetings.

Demonstrated proficiency with:
Spreadsheets.
Adobe or similar software for publishing.
Writing and composition with clarity.
Possess analytical abilities.
Have a knowledgeable background in the California avocado industry.

Submit:
Letter of interest.
Resume.
Two 450-500 word articles suitable for publication, one about marketing and one about an industry issue of interest.

Compensation:
This position is an independent contractor and compensation, paid monthly, is based on the number of subscribers, and is currently about $28,000/year.

Applicants should be a resident of a California avocado growing area, and not employed or directly/indirectly affiliated with any avocado packing or marketing entity, other than as an avocado grower.